LCYC 2021 BEACH PARTY ... BEACHED!

June 26th had looked promising, but by the time it got here Small Craft Warnings were flying, the clouds were threatening and by 11:30 a.m. the sky opened up and dashed any hopes of a “real” beach party.

Earlier in the morning Fleet Captain “Coach” spoke with Commodore Woodburn about the threats, and alternatives were discussed. The pool was a good option, but there was a wedding scheduled for the afternoon and we didn’t want to create a distraction for that important event, so it was decided to move the beach party to the club house pavilion.

Needless to say, any excuse for a party prevailed, the grill was fired up and commanded by Commodore Bob Woodburn and Barb, drinks were at the ready, music played and the laughter and enjoyment commenced.
