C-DOCK'S FAMILY FEUD SWEEPS IN WITH A STORM

C-DOCK CHASES AWAY RAINY DAY BLUES WITH FUN, LAUGHTER AND PIZZA

Well despite gale force winds and rain blowing through the pavilion just before happy hour; Steven, Jack and Jay using all their strength to keep the tent from blowing across the field in pieces; props and decorations flying every which way, we were able to get through dinner (hot delicious pizza from Nino's) relatively dry. And, even though it never did stop raining completely and at times the sound of the rain on the roof was deafening, we did find breaks in the weather for the LCYC Family Feud Game Show Night – Olverson's Edition to go on with enthusiasm from players and the audience alike. Dave Teets did a masterful job as Richard Dalton, the game show host and the docks sent entertaining families to compete.

In the first game, the Roundabout family from E Dock beat out the C-Nile family from C Dock. In the second game, D Dock's Miller family took the win from B Dock's Do Nothing family. Both losing teams received consolation prizes and both winning teams received gift baskets.

After a commercial break and dessert (Twinkies, HOHOs, Zingers, Swiss rolls etc) from Little Debbie's, the final round was played - The Millers against the Roundabouts. They were playing for high stake prizes - gift bags of wine, a donation from Freddie for their dock and a brand new 2018 Venom speed boat (batteries included :)). The competition was lively with E Dock's Roundabouts winning the game and all the prizes. That is two for two for E Dock, if you recall they won the Olverson's Cup Trophy too! Congratulations!!
